Our Safety Policy

The protection and safety of employees is a basic and significant value and is consistently implemented. All employees, regardless of the company they work for or their position are assured total safety.

Our initiatives towards safety have brought a change in behaviour throughout the company and improved our safety performance.

I expect our change to persist and continue on and with that our next areas of major focus will be as listed:

- I. The absolute commitment of management to safety by deploying a formal, structured, monitored ongoing improvement process, complying with measurable results.
- II. Creating and keeping a culture of safety, through participation of many educational approaches with the involvement of all employees' part of Ausway Transport.
- III. Methodically assessing the risks involved in all activities and acting on experience and new knowledge, improving performance of employees to design an effective ways to prevent and control risks.
- IV. Reinforce training modified to the specific necessities of each task.

Changing behaviour and improving safety performance will produce lasting results, if it is viewed as a test of professionalism and an essential part of our work.

I will be personally monitoring and assessing the implementation of our safety policy to ensure all employees and customers have ensured safety that will not be compromised in any way.
